It's driving, exciting, and makes you wanna move. Thing is, people who don't know what contra dancing is like it too. It's based on traditional fiddle tunes, but also new and exciting. It's a living, breathing tradition with acoustic instruments -- fiddle, guitar, mandolin, piano, and even some foot percussion thrown in. Dance, or just sit and listen, but you may have a hard time sitting still! We are: Jonathan Thielen, fiddle, Owen Morrison, guitar, mandolin, and feet, and Shawn Brenneman, piano.
