

Mp3 Richard Levinson - Unchartables Vol. 1 Live At The Sacred Fools Theater, Los Angeles

DOWNLOAD HERE

The first released collection of satire and comedy songs by Richard Levinson, who Fred Willard describes as "always funny, always wonderful," and Phil Proctor of the Firesign Theater calls "terrific." 12 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, SPOKEN WORD: Comedy Details: Richard Levinson Unchartables Vol. I Recorded Live at The Sacred Fools Theater, Los Angeles After penning Burt Reynoldss country novelty hit Lets Do Something Cheap and Superficial many, many, many years ago, songwriter Richard Levinson descended into the dark world of advertising music, writing jingles for shopping malls, restaurants, furniture warehouses, newspapers, plumbing supply distributors, waterbeds, jewelers, car dealers, newspapers, piano stores, supermarkets, sauerkraut, frozen desserts, miniature golf courses, beers, wines, banks, the California Egg Commission, the LSU womens basketball team and one very large discount brokerage. To atone for this, he has over the years also written comedy music and satiric songs -- which he quite appropriately calls Unchartables. Some of these have appeared in productions by MTV, National Lampoon, Fox/HBO and Disney Television Animation. His songs were also featured regularly on the Dr. Demento syndicated radio show. A self-described professional dilettante, Richard has written for numerous local and national magazines, most of which are now out of business. Along with his occasional performances at the Sacred Fools Theater, he currently acts as musical director for the LA version of No-Shame Theater, which is presented Friday nights at the Powerhouse Theater in Santa Monica. He also performs regularly with The MOHOs, the sketch comedy group headed by Mary Willard and her lovely husband Fred, who says, "Its hard to get Richard out of the room, but his songs are hard to get out of your head. They are always catchy, always funny, and always wonderful. " Bravo! Terrific stuff... -- Phil Proctor, Firesign Theater Richard Levinson is like a modern Cole Porter-except way more talented and clever and not dead!" --Julie Brown Hey, there's some clever shit in this album. Richard Levinson performs his songs in the tradition of Tom Lehrer, Phil Ochs, Randy Newman, Roy Zimmerman, and David Frischberg. Welcome to another troubador of musical irreverence. --Paul Krassner

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: