An old-time string band that plays early American fiddle tunes, call and response songs and ballads. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: Rooted in traditional American fiddle music, Triple Chicken Foot plays from the heart. The music, simple and repetitive, lends itself to being driven strong and direct - thats how the Foot likes it. In the past, when the work was all done, the music began (be it the radio or pas fiddle or banjo) bringing people together to dance, relax and have a good time. Triple Chicken Foot plays it that way. The repetoire is as simple as their set up fiddle tunes, ballads, call and response numbers all played around a single microphone. They draw their material from such classic sources as the Carter Family, the Skillet Lickers, the Camp Creek Boys, Uncle Dave Macon and The Watson Family. Whether its a backyard BBQ, a park picnic or a fancy church-style wedding -Triple Chicken Foot is guaranteed to get those feet tapping. Bust Down! Triple Chicken Foot is: Benjamin Guzmn on fiddle and mandolin, Mike Heinle on upright bass and banjo, Scott McDougall on guitjo, and Kelly Marie Martin on guitar. They all sing.
