Roger Daltrey of The WHO sings "Wheels on the Bus" and three new songs in this award winning children's CD that brings the classic song to life. 12 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: Roger Daltrey is the lead singer for The WHO, considered by many to be one of the greatest Rock and Roll bands of all time. This is Roger's first work for children. He says - "The Wheels on the Bus gave me the chance to do something different. It's a great way of introducing music to a whole new generation of kids -- maybe even the grandchildren of the teenagers who grew up listening to The WHO." Laura Hall has written lots of music for kids, including her album for children, "I See a Tiger," which is also distributed on CD Baby. Laura wrote the original songs, arranged all the music, and sings back-up on all the numbers. Laura is also the bandleader on the hit ABC show - "Whose Line Is It, Anyway?" Janie Laurel Escalle sings the part of Coco. Janie is nine-years-old and "The Wheels on the Bus Video" is her first movie.
