the strenght of the caresse . This fist album of the young bamboo flute virtoso offers a gorgeous dreamy collection of ragas. Just dim the light where you are, and enjoy. 5 MP3 Songs WORLD: Indian Classical, NEW AGE: Solo Instrumental Details: These ragas soothe the senses, temper mood and gently guide the mind on a voyage to the heart of mystic India. Haunting refrains and mesmeric melodies evoke potent images of this sacred land : boundless azure skies, palm-fringed golden shores, psychedelic saris, sumptuous spices, ornate temples and ageless sages. The tracks weave a rich tapestry through all the varied strands of vibrant and colourful classical Hindu culture. The music captivates the soul, drawing it into a meditative trance reminiscent of 'samadhi', the bliss of the devotee and sadhu, yet effortlessly, without need for long contemplation. The sounds are inspired by, and celebrate, the serene and settled spiritual life found in ashram, Himalayan retreat and, particularly, that utopian idyll, "Auroville". One could say this album is a dedication to Sri Aurobindo, saint and founder of this 'golden town'. Both uplifting and relaxing, it dissolves mundane stress and anxiety while feeding the Higher Self with that finer creative nourishment it so often lacks. This CD guarantees a taste - if not a whole banquet - of the sublime, usually reserved for the ascetic or renunciant. Enjoy this gift from the Divine ! Visit our booking site at nashabooking.free.fr
