Imagine Nas Black Ice collaborating on a culturally conscious project with production by DJ Premier. 13 MP3 Songs HIP-HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Some believe Hip-Hop is dead and that the culture needs to break away from corporate control. Others say real Hip-Hop is in a cocoon, and that something stronger and more beautiful will emerge at the right time. Then there are those who have given up on it altogether. Well, there's a buzz coming out of Baltimore about a new hip-hop / spoken word duo that are changing peoples view of the genre across a wide range of ages and lifestyles. "Precise Science: Everybody's Not Gonna Make It" is being heralded as the benchmark standard of the new evolution in conscious hip-hop. Can Hip-Hop be political but not preachy? Spiritual but not sappy? Educational, edgy, eclectic - yet still pleasing to the ear, musically? Hip-Hop lives. "The album is fire!" - Sparlha Swa "Very nice, indeed I love it, we need it!" - Dionne Farris "The piece on Marcus Garvey is for all to hear " - Faruq Muhammad, Counsel General, UNIA Legal Defense Committee "Everything they say, every word, is precise science" - Phil Valentine, World Renowned Metaphysician "...like a splash of cold water, refreshing." - Speech of Arrested Development In a time of shock jock media hype, corrupted radio stations and notions of censoring lyrics, here comes an inspiring response in the form of a melodic journey through the hearts and minds of the Afrikan Centered Conscious Community.
