Contemporary Native American Flute Music 10 MP3 Songs WORLD: Native American, NEW AGE: Meditation Details: In 2004 Jeff and the band were introduced to a new instrument called the Hang. The sound of the Hang and the Native American Flute blend together so well that it only seemed natural to record an entire album based around these two instruments. On this recording Jeff and Ted are joined by guest artists; Ron Kravitz on the Hang, Shruti Box and Chanting, Peter Phippen on the Bansuri, Dawn Avery on Cello, Ron Warren on Piano, John Natale on Guitar, and Randy Ball on Fretless Bass Guitar. This album was formerly titled Touching Quiet. This newer release contains a new version of "The Shape of Light" featuring the violin of Arvel Bird. This new release also contains an additional ten minutes of new music.
