Southern Soul Blues with a Smooth R&B Sound and a crossover of Pop. 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Southern Soul, BLUES: Soul-Blues Details: Writer, Vocalist and Producer Who is Mr. Sam? Mr. Sam was born Sam Fallie in Memphis, TN. Mr. Sams family moved to LA while he was a small child, but relocated back to Memphis when he was 10. While living in LA, Mr. Sam discovered a love for music. From this discovery Mr. Sam joined his High School Choir and there he gained notoriety for his talent. After completing High School Mr. Sam formed several groups (Mellow Mystics, Naked Truth Band and Perfectionist) but all were short lived. Even though the groups were short lived something good did come out for Mr. Sam while performing with the group Perfectionist. The Legendary Great Late Allen Jones, Producer and Manager for the infamous Bar-Kays asked Mr. Sam to come aboard as a Staff Writer and he has been on his way every since. Mr. Sams writing abilities have been compared to such greats as Homer Banks and Lionel Richie and you will soon learn why. Mr. Sam has written several hits for the Bar-Kays such as: What Goes In Da Club Stays In Da Club featuring George Clinton, Holla If You Like That, My Everythang and Lets Git Bizzy, J. Blackfoot: It Aint Over, Im Just A Fool featuring Lenny Williams and the remake with Sir Charles Jones, Archie Love: Should Have Been There For You and Same Woman featuring J. Blackfoot, Theodis Ealey: Move With The Motion, Jerry L.: Girls In The Hood and Daily Love, Mr. Sam also wrote You Gon Make Me and Heartache which won Southern Soul Artist Lacey (Best Female Artist of the Year 2006). Now Mr. Sam is Lookin 4 Love the title cut from his own debut album released on MLaa Records. Other hits from his debut album are: Im Comin Home and 12 Steps 4 Cheaters thats who Mr. Sam is.
