Maria Callas Grand Prix) performs with EUTERPE Symphony Orchestra conducted by Alim Shakhmametyev 12 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Opera, CLASSICAL: Arias Details: Veronika Dzhioeva - the young lyric-dramatic soprano, who is very popular now in Russia. Studying at the St. Petersburg State Rimsky-Korsakov Conservatory under Prof. Tamara Novichenko (the teacher of Marina Shaguch and Anna Netrebko as well), Veronika started her career with the Third prize at the Maria Callas International Competition (Athens, 2005). Russian music critics began to appreciate her after she has got Grand Prix at the VII International Vocal Competition (Kaliningrad, 2006). The magazine Culture awarded her with the title of Debut of The Year for her performing of the role of Fiordiligi in Cosi fan tutte (The Moscow International Music House, 2006). Three times in this season she sang at the Moscow Conservatory Big Hall, the first concert venue in Russia. Two concerts were broadcasted on State TV channels. All her premieres in Novosibirsk State Opera Theatre get wide all-country resonance. Veronika is engaged in concert life in Russia very tightly. Today we have no doubt that Veronika Dzhioeva as a singer belongs to the whole world.
