The electric Texan of rock and blues. Fans from all over the world collect his original unmistakable style. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Album Rock, BLUES: Electric Blues Details: John Nitzinger, a Texas legend, has been a worldwide force behind rock and roll since the 70s. His song writing style is unique and diversified. He is known for his contribution to the development of the signature sound of Texas Rock and Blues. Proof of his Texas legendary status, Nitzinger was one of the first four artists to be inducted into Buddy Magazines Texas Tornados Hall of Fame in 1978, as a Texas Tornado of Guitar, one of the best musicians in Texas, perhaps in the world. During the 70s, John wrote half of five albums with the rock band, Bloodrock. He was awarded a Gold Album from Capitol Records for Bloodrock 2 and was soon signed to Capitol on a solo venture. Two classics were released; the self titled Nitzinger and Nitzinger One Foot In History. The hit single Louisiana Cockfight is considered to be a classic. John took to touring his solo albums and shared the stage with legendary artists such as, Leon Russell, BB King, Sly The Family Stone and Freddie King. Moving on internationally, he performed at the Mar Y Sol International Pop Festival in Puerto Rico with world renowned artists such as The Allman Brothers Band, Alice Cooper, BB King, The J. Geils Band, The Mahavishnu Orchestra with John McLaughlin, Emerson Lake Palmer, among others. Johns classic, Jelly Roll Blues stole the show and became an instant hit for Atlantic Records. In 1976, John signed with 20th Century Fox and music mogul, Russ Regan to produce Nitzingers album, Live Better Electrically. This album reached the charts with two hit singles, Are You With Me and Yellow Dog. In 1980, Carl Palmer broke away from Emerson Lake and Palmer to form a new group, 1PM, which included John as a major song writer and guitarist. They signed to Areola Europe Records and released the single Dynamite, increasing Johns popularity in the overseas market. In 1982, John joined forces with Alice Cooper on the Special Forces international and USA tours as guitarist. After touring, John wrote, with Alice Cooper, the album Zipper Catches Skin. The album was released on Warner Bros. Records featuring Johns I Like Girls, a great success in Europe and Asia. With his return from the road, John released an album on the label of Record Heaven, Going Back To Texas. This album contains thirteen of his classic songs such as, Louisiana Cockfight, Jelly Roll Blues, Yellow Dog, L.A.

Texas Boy, and Control. John hit the road again for a brief European tour performing at the Tenth Annual Sweden Rock Festival as well as appearing on television, radio and at exclusive club dates. Due to popular demand, another European tour is in the near future. A Nitzinger show is a must see event. Its memorable to experience the emotion in his songwriting and to witness the instrumental prowess of an artist of his stature.
