Roots rock music in a live and studio setting. Complete with wah wah mandolin and bowed upright bass 8 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, FOLK: like Joni Details: "Sweet Affection" is the title and lead off track on Tom Freund's 4th album of songs. This one is a half live, half studio set that represents Tom's diversity and musical ingenuity. Half of the proceeds from this CD go to Sweet Relief: A musicians fund , started by Victoria Williams a decade ago, and who guest vocalizes on two of the tracks here, "Gentleman Of The Shade" and the stirring "Cant Cry Hard Enough." The latter is announced by Tom on the CD as a duet that he was going to do with Victoria, however she had taken sick with another relapse of MS just prior to this benefit concert. Much to his surprise, however, The organizer of the show, gets Victoria on the cell phone and places it to the mic just as Tom sits at the piano , and the result is a mysteriously moving "cellular duet" between Freund and Williams. Also featured in the live set is a tantalizing Hedrixymandolin wah wah solo by Freund on "Francie from his album "Sympatico." Critically hailed singer/songwriter, Tom Freund, has just returned from a month long tour opening for Ben Harper, where the two also rekindled some songs on stage together from their "Pleasure and Pain" album, recorded in 1992. Ben also joined Tom in his set for "Copper Moon." Of the Recently released recording "Copper Moon," MSNBC says, "he made an album that is all at once addictive, stylistically diverse and honest to the core," and LA Weekly: "Copper Moon is set to get him the recognition he deserves." Also 3 songs from the album have been featured in major network TV's "Las Vegas" and "Dawson's Creek." In the mid '90s, after the album with Harper, Tom toured extensively with the indie rock cult faves The Silos. Freund also is a favorite of NPR's "Weekend Edition" and has been championed by Los Angeles' powerful KCRW-FM, where he has performed live on "Morning Becomes Eclectic." Graham Parker added,"Along with Lucinda Williams, Freund is the best singer/songwriter operating today." Research Tom's other albums as well, "North American Long Weekend" which has made the New York Times annual Best Of List and hailed as "an unexpected gem" and "Sympatico" that had No Depression saying "Freund captures slices of Americana thats many attempt, yet very few actually master."
