Details: The Latin Giants of Jazz is one of the most exciting, colorful and authentic orchestras currently on the music scene. It is no surprise that blazing trumpets, swinging saxophones, blaring trombones, melodic vocals and an exciting percussion section comes from the alumni of Tito Puente's orchestra. Led by long time Puente band members John Rodriguez, Jose Madera and CEO Stew Jackson, The Latin Giants of Jazz offer the best of Afro-Cuban and Latin American music. Having toured the world with the late great Tito Puente for 35 years, these all-star musicians have unparalleled history and experience. Currently having two CDs released: The Latin Giants Play the Music of the PalladiumTito Lives and Trip to Mamboland. Both recordings underscore why these musicians are recognized as some of the best in their field. They bring swinging perfection to stage with their tremendous sound that lures you from your seat to the dance floor.
