Melodic Alternative Rock made by a boy and a girl. 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Emo, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Looner gets "Naked," musically that is, on their latest 5-Song EP Rules. They strip down their sound to bare bones and then build it piece by piece into a rock solid amalgamation, ultimately a absolute rock 'n' roll force, and one not to be taken lightly. This incredibly full and power-packed music is Zo Roch (drums, vocals, loops) and Angel Roch Jr. (vocals, guitar), a husband a wife duo that rocks so hard it hurts, but boy does it ever feel so good. Angel calls their recording multi-tasking as an art form, a live and risky way to record in the studio, yet taking the leap to see what happens, results in a sound that is loud and ballsy, like a five piece band, not two people. It is ironic that they titled their CD Rules because they do not follow any and come out smelling like a rose on these tracks...you gotta love that indie spirit!
