simulate the feel of Sildenafil citrate, sold as Viagra this is the ultra strength version , you can expect full experience with sweating,increase in conversations,feeling of ecstasy,gained energy,you last longer in intercourse ,sleep less,have more motivation for every day activity's,stronger more for filling orgasms and you will stay hard longer than you ever thought was possible with just putting some headphone on instead of paying so much so for the pill when u can just use our alternative method. It only take 20 minutes of you listening to this track for you to feel it. It works best if you lay down and relax without distractions. You can take it as far as 2 hours before sex and it still be totally effective. how does this work? Brainwave synchronization (entrainment) may be achieved when audio signals are introduced to the brain causing a response directly related to the frequency of the signal introduced, called binaural beats. Two tones close in frequency generate a beat frequency at the difference of the frequencies, which is generally subsonic. For example, a 600 Hz tone and 610 Hz tone will produce a subsonic 10 Hz tone. The resulting subsonic tone may affect the state of mind of the subject. The "carrier frequency" (i.e. the 600 Hz in the example above), is also said by some to affect the quality of the transformative experience. We use a advanced technique to get the fastest and the fullest experience possible. Each of our tracks contains advanced binaural beats that will synchronize your brainwaves to the same state as the recreational audio track u choose.
