Related styles: KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, FOLK: Children's Folk Details: Heather Bishop In Concert "A powerful energy field of fantasy and fun" Heather's concerts are chock-full of quirky, upbeat, sing-along songs to stimulate the imagination and tickle the funny bone. Heather combines stories and songs into a seamless whole that celebrates the beauty and value of us all. People of all ages, from toddlers to grandparents, get swept up by Heather's exuberance and can't help but sing and dance along. Her repertoire includes songs in many musical styles, from folk to rap, country western to rock roll. On Recording Heather released her fourth children's recording, Chickee's On The Run!, to great critical acclaim. Not only did it receive a JUNO nomination, but also received the Parents Choice Gold Award, the National Parenting Publications Gold Award, and the Best Childrens Recordings Listing in Emergency Librarian. The coveted Parents Choice Awards are often referred to in the U.S. press as the Oscars of childrens media. The National Parenting Publications Association (NAPPA) does a national review of the best in childrens media with a focus on quality products that have a sustained educational and entertainment value. Following in the sound waves of A Duck In New York City, Bellybutton, and Purple People Eater, Chickee's On The Run! sparkles, with songs like "The Tortoise Race", "Only in Australia", and "Salt in Your Socks". The Kitchener-Waterloo Record called A Duck In New York City "an outstanding production". Kids Toronto said it's "as hip as they come... Bishop successfully deals with feelings and attitudes... her humour captures the listener". A Duck in New York City was also awarded the Parents' Choice Gold Award. Bio From her home in rural Manitoba, Heather tours far and wide across Canada and the United States. She performs for arts organizations, community groups, schools, and festivals in major cities, rural towns, and remote communities. Over the past few years Heather has gone abroad touring in Australia, Scotland and Wales. She also has had her children's repertoire arranged for orchestra and has performed numerous family concerts with symphony orchestras both in Canada and the United States. Heather has been featured on many national radio programs, including Morningside and The Gabereau

Show. She was filmed for Listen Up!, a half-hour TV profile series of prominent Canadian musicians, and was included in a series of children's concerts for BCTV that has been broadcast in several regions of Canada. Heather has been a special guest on a number of episodes of Fred Penner's Place. In Workshop Heather conducts hands-on Teachers' Workshops called "Music Lives In Us All" focusing on the use of music as an educational tool throughout the curriculum. Music is motivational and Heather presents practical activities for use in the areas of language arts, science, and social skills. The workshop content can be applied readily and effectively in the classroom.
