An album that is full of beautiful songs in English, Spanish and Portuguese arranged in the best jazz-bossa-lounge style. The playing and production find the best of both the contemporary and the classic and create an eclectic and sultry style which is all her own. SONY-BMG is in charge of promoting and distributing this record in Venezuela, Colombia and Ecuador. The General Production was managed by Maruja Muci, with collaboration from two exceptional Venezuelan musicians: Jos Manuel Pinto and Gonzalo Mic. Many other talented musicians also participated in this production such as Percussionist Joel "Pibo" Mrquez, Theorbist Rubn Riera, Adrian Holtz who is winner of two ASCAP awards and also two BOSTON MUSIC awards, Moby's "Hotel" musician Kurt Uenala and many others (see credits on marujamuci.com) "Hair", the musical, opened in Caracas in 1983, with Maruja starring as first ballerina and singer; from there she moved on to TV commercials where her voice and image were used for advertising campaigns such as "Pepsi" and "Alliance for a Drug free Venezuela", among others. In 1987 she obtained a Law Degree. It was not until 1993 that she returned to singing with the leading role of "Doa Virtudes" in the Spanish Zarzuela "La Gran Va" After that she undertook classical singing lessons with her teacher, Florentina Adam, she has continued these studies ever since. In the summer of 2002, while in New York, she recorded the voice for Jos Luis Pardo's single "Mala Idea". Jos Luis is the guitarist and lyricist in the Grammy nominated Venezuelan band "Los Amigos Invisibles". This song would later become a hit in the United Kingdom as the re-mix version by the "Pound Boys" under the "Look At You Records" label. Listening to Maruja's songs is listening to a clean, velvety and unaffected voice that wraps itself around the lyrics, it is a voice that tells stories while it sings and brings with it a sense of intimacy between the listener and the artist as if she is singing to you and you alone. --//---//--//---//--//---//--//---//--//---

Maruja Lander de Muci naci en Caracas y es precisamente sta la que inspir el ttulo de su primer trabajo comercial, "dreaming in caracas". No se trata de una produccin de temas caraqueos como su ttulo pudiera sugerir sino ms bien una compilacin de temas propios y universales en Espaol, Ingls y Portugus. Conceptualmente posee elementos muy refinados del jazz, y bossa nova sin escapar del world music y la clsica frescura del incipiente lounge music. SONY-BMG es la encargada de la distribucin y promocin de ste trabajo para Venezuela, Colombia y Ecuador. La produccin general fue realizada por Maruja Muci y para eso cont con la colaboracin de dos msicos arreglistas venezolanos excepcionales como lo son Jos Manuel Pinto y Gonzalo Mic, as como una plyade de msicos que hicieron posible este trabajo. (ver quines son en "creditos" en marujamuci.com) En la dcada de los 80 se estrena en Caracas la pieza musical "Hair" donde Maruja participa como primera bailarina y cantante; de ah siguieron comerciales para la TV en los que su voz e imagen fueron utilizadas para campaas publicitarias, como "Pepsi" y "Alianza para una Venezuela sin Drogas" entre otras. Es abogado egresada de la Universidad Catlica Andrs Bello y no fue sino hasta el ao 93 cuando retoma el canto con el papel principal de "Doa Virtudes" en la Zarzuela "La Gran Va" en el Teatro Teresa Carreto, a partir de entonces comenz los estudios de canto clsico con su Maestra Florentina Adam los cuales mantiene rigurosamente hasta hoy. En verano de 2002 en Nueva York grab la voz para el sencillo "Mala Idea" de Jos Luis Pardo, guitarrista de la reconocida banda venezolana nominada a los premios Grammy "Los Amigos Invisibles", que luego se convertira en hit en el Reino Unido en versin re-mix de "Los Pound Boys" bajo el sello disquero "Look At You Records". Escuchar cantar a Maruja Muci es escuchar una voz clara, limpia, una voz natural sin afecaciones que realza las letras de los compositores, es una voz que cuenta historias cuando canta creando una sensacin de intimidad entre la artista y su pblico. "Tiene cualidades excepcionales, pero a mi modo de ver una de las ms relevantes es el modo como maneja un timbre tan cristalino y bien articulado que es tan escaso en nuestros das"(Leonardo Bigott, sinmordaza.net/blogs/leobigott.php)
