Electronica and harpsichords brought together, with songs ranging from pounding electro-industrial and EBM (containing both distorted male vocals and beautiful guest female vocals), to soft instrumentals the likes of Danny Elfman or Elliot Goldenthal. 16 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Industrial, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Dark electronic music accented with the sound of harpsichords is what you will find with Soul Circuit. This is the Florida-based dark-ebm/electro-goth Soul Circuit (not to be confused with the European techno artist of the same name). Started in early 2001, this is the music of Brett Saltzer, and is an attempt to equally mix modern electronic synth-based music with live harpsichords and other classical elements. It's goal is to bring the past and the future together as an equal musical blend. The songs range from beat-heavy electro-industrial, to soft instrumentals in style (with both distorted male and guest female vocals used), but the harpsichords are always present to give it a unique trademark sound.
