Details: After a dirty day on the trail you stop into your favorite Saloon for a few Firewaters. The Saloon was a place of rest and relaxation for many over the years and has a certain "charm" of all its own. One could have some drinks while listening to the old time music played by the piano player and later the automatic music machine. The music played on this recording is a perfectly restored Seeburg L "Nickelodeon" coin piano. This music ranges a period of time to the mid 1800's to the mid 1920's. This era was a time of heavy drinking, rowdy fun and some old time stepping.
