A couple years back I was struggling to figure out how to make money on the Internet -- I mean I was literally hanging by a thread. I was completely BROKE. No -- scratch that. I was MORE than broke. I was seriously in debt. When you're in serious debt, even just getting out of bed can be a chore, because the stress is often overwhelming, so much so that getting any kind of rest or sleep is impossible. In fact, back then the only thing I really ever thought about with any great consistency was money -- or my complete lack of money. When I was able to actually get some sleep was when I dreamed of some 'big break' -- one which would pull me out of the financial hole I was sinking into... Imagine friends at work asking you to lunch, and you are afraid to say, "Yes", because you don't think you can scrape together the $5 for McDonalds. Or... you're almost on empty, 20 miles from home, and all you have is spare change in the car to get gas. You stop and put in what you can...

sweating... nervous... fingers crossed that will you get home on a buck and a quarter of gas. That was life for me. Maybe you've been there and maybe you haven't. Either way, you can see how that kind of life would be mind numbingly stressful. And then one day I literally stumbled into outsourcing... and I accidentally turned my life around. One Chance Phone Call And A Whole New World Opened Up! One day, while on the phone with a programmer that my friend told me about, he asked me if there was anything else he could do for me. I WAS discussing the fee I owed him for fixing an issue with my shopping cart but when he asked me this, I jokingly replied, "Sure thing, get me the top spot on Google for my top 2 keywords." His reply surprised me. "No problem." -- "I'll have it done in 2 months." And he DID it (and you'd be blown away at how little it cost -- payable only after he had achieved the top spots on Google and I was making cash off those sites)! That phone call completely changed the way I did business. It transformed my life. From then on I outsourced everything and became the person that came up with the ideas and leveraged other talents to assemble everything for me. Now I'd like to help you do the same -- I'd like to help you make more money while working less. I know firsthand how amazing this is and I want to help you see it too. Starting today...
