The two found a well balanced partnership through influences of Jazz and electronic beats, which shaped their sound. The duo began writing and performing live with the idea of creating a melodic, jazzy, and electronic soundtrack, emotionally tailored to each individual. The music has a quirky thematic character that gets in your head and moves your caboose. The duo recently scored a feature film entitled "The Bedstand", composed music for the "Lucent Dossier" vaudeville cirque, co-wrote and co-produced two dance remixes reaching billboards top 10, and have released their debut album, "Heliosentric.". They are currently performing their music in the LA underground art community, and are soon to unveil their expanded show, including a live visual experience.
