Soulful rock and blues with riveting vocals and great original songs. A seven piece band with dynamic horns and the flavor of the San Francisco Bay area. 11 MP3 Songs BLUES: Rockin' Blues, ROCK: Latin Rock Details: The San Francisco Bay Area has always been a sanctuary for the creative thinker. Just-Truckin takes its place in the Bay Area music scene with talent, experience and an eclectic blend of original songs. The band has seven members including a dynamic female lead vocalist and a rockin horn section. Bandleader and guitarist/songwriter Ken Simms put the band together in 2004 and music fans immediately took notice. The sound is bluesy with a rock edge and a bit of Latin thrown in. Lead vocalist, Paula Sorce brings years of experience as a performer, studio singer and songwriter. Her vocals have been described as soulful and electrifying. Studio drum wizard Jethro DeFries, also writes, sings and produces the band. Super funk James Prothro on Bass and vocals brings great energy and a rock solid bottom. The Just-Truckin horns include the amazing Mario Vega on Sax and Flute and the fabulous Manny Angel on Trumpet and Flugelhorn. Finally Dave Coldren rocks the house with great keys and vocals. The CD Fearless features 10 original songs and one tribute to Janis Joplin on the cut Maybe. Track 3 Evolution is the bands statement about our environment and the title cut Fearless is singer Paula Sorces life story. Rock the Nation and Do you Believe are as pumping as Makin My Way South and Over and Over are thoughtful. Full Moon High Tide and All Day Blues are rock blues at its best. 1969 is about San Francisco during the hey-day and Storm Comin On remembers New Orleans. Just-Truckin has been featured twice on the Don Sanchez entertainment report on ABC7 News San Francisco and continue to play venues all over California. If you still believe in music that will rock you, touch you and lift you all at the same time, come check out this band. People who are interested in Janis Joplin Cold Blood Santana should consider this download.
