Stanley Brinks first album, is a compelling 10-track opus of calypso influenced acoustic guitar and cunning brass arrangements that are delivered with honesty and simplicity. Stans humorous and poignant lyrics cover a wide range of topics including train trips damaging your brain, MCs playing EPs in temples and Danish movies with Swedish subtitles. Dank U opens with the Single Stanley Brinks (released in January 08), a laidback autobiographical tale, followed by other album jewels such as My Experience With Truth, Pease Pottage and Ill Be With You which, although reminiscent of his work with Herman Dune, are heavily doused with a unique charm that only Stan knows the secret of... Dank U was recorded and produced in Berlin, the current hideout of Stanley Brinks, and will be released on limited edition 12 vinyl and digital download on June 2nd 2008. People who are interested in Tom Waits Jonathan Richman Herman Dne should consider this download.
