

How Do I Love Thee

Royalty Free image. Theme is love. This poem by Elizabeth Barret Browning is absolutely incredible. The poem is a sonnet about love. Her ability to articulate how she feels is nothing short of genius. The image is a watercolor photo of a couple walking along the beach, surrounded by a heart made of bubbles. Poem reads as follow, "Love Peom By Elizabeth Barret Browning, Sonnet XLIII, How do I love thee? Let me count the ways. I love thee to the depth and breadth and height My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight For the ends of Being and ideal Grace. I love thee to the level of everyday's Most quiet need, by sun and candle-light. I love thee freely, as men strive for Right; I love thee purely, as they turn from Praise. I love thee with the passion put to use In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith. I love thee with a love I seemed to lose With my lost saints,--I love thee with the breath, Smiles, tears, of all my life!--and, if God choose, I shall but love thee better after death. Great image for photo cards, keepsake boxes, tiles and much much more.
