What a band should be. Mostly rock, a little folk and some country. Passion. Honesty. 13 MP3 Songs in this album (48:41) ! Related styles: ROCK: Rock Roll, FOLK: Folk-Rock Details: Having spent the past couple of years winning over audiences with their mesmerizing and energetic live show, The Ripperz faced a dilemma when the time came to recreate their charisma in the studio. The only logical solution seemed to be to record the album live from the floor. So with the help of John Paul Peters, The Ripperz locked themselves in the studio during Winnipeg's unforgiving winter to record their self-titled debut full length album. The result is 13 tracks of some of the purest rock 'n' roll you're sure to find. The most notable characteristic of this album is its intensity. Regardless of style and tempo there is an urgency to each track that is impossible to ignore. The Ripperz have also managed to find a way to flow seamlessly between genres. The captivating Baby, Let's Go Out is reminiscent of Band of Horses, Tonight sounds like a B-side from The Unforgettable Fire and Home Sweet Home rocks like Wolfmother.
