Details: If it were easy to change your life by simply changing your thoughts, everyone would succeed. We all carry learned negative messages stored in our subconscious mind. You can rewrite those messages with Spiritual Affirmations for Prosperity. 4 reasons why this CD is different 1. You don't need to schedule time out of your busy day to listen to it. Just let it play as you wake up and fall asleep, the times when the subconscious is most receptive. Repetition is the key to success. 2. There is nothing hidden, embedded or subliminal. What you hear is what you get. 3. The affirmations are spoken in the first person (i.e. "Today I will do at least one thing to help me reach my goals,") with opportunities to speak your desires and visualize. 4. There are also scripture verses spoken in the first person. For instance, "I know whatever I ask for in prayer, having faith and believing, I will receive. (Matthew 21:22) God, these are my heart's desires ..." The morning track is designed to bring you into vibrational harmony with your desires and not let the nay sayers cast doubt on your aspirations. The evening track is designed to change long-held beliefs that may be holding you back. Mary Pitman created the affirmations as a way of dealing with her own blocks to success as she continues through the patent process on a multimillion dollar idea. She found other people had the same negative self-talk holding them back. "You can't do this. You'll never be rich. Be happy where you are. God will like you more if you're poor." Wrong! Wrong! Wrong! Mary Pitman is a former prayer chaplain trained in affirmative prayer, an award-winning journalist, entrepreneur and RN. Mike Davis is a spirit-based musician, composer, producer and singer. He balances the attributes of consummate professionalism with an intuitive and heartfelt approach to creating in the moment. Focused and passionate, Mike is clear in his purpose of expressing God through soulful New Thought music.
