In the words of Len Hotrum singer and songwriter for Point One "we hope the messages in these songs will make the listener dig deeper into their own lives a little deeper to reach that void or 'The Absence' in their lives that we all tend to fill with addictions, materiel possessions, drugs, sex or money you name it... We are so wrapped up in daily struggle that we are missing the whole point of living! All songs on 'The Absence' are a resemblance of the darkness that exists around us past, present and future." 'The Absence' is Point One's third and most potent album to date. Working together with producer Kelly Gray (Queensryche, Candlebox, Nevermore) Point One have been able to define and capture their unique sound. Highlights on 'The Absence' include 'Never Let It Go' - 'Sometimes' and the epic closing track 'The Absence'. Delve into this album and find out what Point One is all about.
