Powerful, guitar-driven worship songs with deep lyrics, rich full music, and earthy vocals. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: "All worship is a response...to the amazing love and character of God." Scott has been writing music for over twenty years. He was compelled to write this worship music after being profoundly influenced by the Discovery Bible study which was written by Will Betty Wyatt, and published by The Navigators and Dawson Media. Discovery was written to help people learn how to walk in intimacy with God...the way he designed us to. The truest thing about God is what he says about himself. The truest thing about us, is what God says about us. These songs are about singing the truth, and experiencing the freedom and grace of God in worship. "My desire has been to write worship songs that are as deep, accurate, and profound as the chapters and passages that they relate to in Discovery. My vision is that this music, as only music can do, will help to write God's word on your heart, and will give you words as you express gratitude...for his amazing love, grace, and mercy." Scott Lisea is husband to his wife, Jamie, and father to their three boys, Tyler, Reed, and Braeden. That is his high calling. He has been following Jesus for some twenty years, and has had the privilege of serving on the Young Life staff for fourteen years. He lives in Santa Barbara, California. You will enjoy and be deeply blessed by this worship music, whether or not you have ever read the Discovery study. If you are familiar with this incredible study, the music will deepen your heart's response to what the Lord has revealed.
