Imagine if Elton John were in an indie pop band 12 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, POP: Folkly Pop
Details: The Woods L.A. based indie-rock trio. Emotionally charged and to the point. The Woods is a group of talented/professional musicians that came together under the influence of singer/songwriter Brad Cohen. The Woods was created as a vision that reflects each member's journey throughout life. Brad Cohen, Los Angeles native and creator of The Woods project specially chose The Woods' musicians based on the desire to express a specific sensibility and energy. His vision is to create music that is a pure representation of the struggles, desires, and love that he experiences on a daily basis. This honesty has been a strong force behind the success of the band. The Woods have a steady growing fan base in Los Angeles and their self-titled debut album is already creating a buzz. The album is being played on Los Angeles' most innovative and acclaimed non-commercial radio station, KCRW. The Wood's music has also been featured on the television show the Dead Zone. The Woods are Brad Cohen, Dan Potruch and Danny Dunlap.
