Details: Los Angeles based electronic duo The Polyamorous Affair release their sophomore effort on Manimal Vinyl this summer. Consisting of singer/songwriter/producer, Eddie Chacon and the seductive front woman Sissy Sainte-Marie, they churn out 10 electro-pop gems under the concept of "Bolshevik Disco". Chacon himself is no stranger to the spotlight, having been one-half of the R&B duo Charle and Eddie (#1 hit "Would I Lie to You). Barely out of his teens he worked on 2 Live Crew's notorious album " As Nasty As They Wanna Be" and with Daddy-O of Stetsasonic. After leaving his adopted home-base in Denmark, Eddie returned to Los Angeles and formed The Polyamorous Affair with spouse and former primary school teacher, Sissy Sainte-Marie. Together the two deliver the inspired dance beats of Giorgio Moroder and the raw sexuality of Serge Gainsbourg's collaborations with vixens, Jane Birkin and Brigitte Bardot. Give that a twist of Marc Bolan-esque hooks and Goldfrapp's technological pagan naturist ways and you get The Polyamorous Affair. Their songs have been praised by queen blogger, Perez Hilton and used on the TV show Ugly Betty. Get ready to pass "Face Control" and brace yourself for Bolshevik Disco".
