Its Christmas Time is a collection of 11 original songs written by Donna Rhodenizer. Although the theme is consistent throughout, the musical styles are varied, and the CD sparkles with the musicianship fans have come to expect from this talented duo. As on other Donna Andy CDs, talented Nova Scotian musicians provide their expertise to create first-rate instrumental accompaniments. The 11 songs on this CD are presented in two versions: full performance tracks as well as sing-along tracks (instrumentals only) for those who want to be the solo performer with the support of a professional back-up band. Donna Andy have spent much time and given great attention to the details of this CD. Gentle, tender songs, choral anthems, Samba-flavoured tunes, humourous songs, and even a traditional carol are all treated with outstanding musicianship and are guaranteed to provide hours of listening pleasure. Handbells and brass instruments give several tunes a real Christmas flavour, while other songs benefit from musical collaboration with North Prestons Hallelujah Praise Choir; sax player, Chris Mitchell; one of Nova Scotias finest bass players, Jamie Gatti; and multi-instrumentalist Greg Simm providing banjo, mandolin and guitar. This is a musical journey that is interesting, exciting and well worth taking.
