We search and destroy and polka. By playing polka with a power-trio rock setup (guitar, bass, drums) we aim to fuse the moshpit with the beergarden. Fun for everyone but especially those people, like ourselves, with a demented point of view. 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, WORLD: Polka Details: They said it couldnt be done, but since 1997 The Polkaholics have been mixing doses of punk rock and polka in a high-speed blender, creating a souped-up sound that fuses the beergarden with the mosh pit. As noted in the Chicago Sun-Times, The Polkaholics wreak havoc to both traditional polka and rock music! As evidence of their ability to break down musical barriers, The Polkaholics have performed in some of the most prestigious Chicago music venues including the Metro, House of Blues, the Vic, the Chicago Symphony Center, the Chicago Cultural Center, and of course the Baby Doll Polka Club. And they have even been featured internationally on the incredible American Polka CD recently released on the Trikont label out of Munich Germany. With founder Dandy Don Hedeker on guitar and vocals, Jolly James Wallace on bass and vocals, and Action Jackson Wilson on drums and vocals, The Polkaholics use a power rock trio format to put the umph into the oompah-POW, blasting polka screaming into the 21st century.
