Recorded on a 9-foot Steinway grand piano, this wonderful collection of hymn pieces reveals how the old hymns can be arranged in a fresh, new way. 13 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Background Music, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: The It Is Well CD is a wonderful collection of instrumental hymn pieces that reveal how the old hymns can be arranged in a fresh, new way. These familiar songs will inspire your faith as you reminisce with those special memories of the past. All the piano pieces on this CD are recorded on 7-ft Steinway piano backed with orchestration. Two of the songs, Amazing Grace and Fairest Lord Jesus, are recorded as soft guitar renditions. All these songs are arranged to bring a calming affect to the listener. Without a word ever spoken, music can move hearts toward God and become medicine to the soul. ABOUT JUSTIN K. KNIGHT An exceptional Bible teacher, speaker, recording artist, and composer, Justin is a licensed and ordained Minister and has been in ministry for seventeen years. Justin and his beautiful wife Charla founded their ministry, "The David Project", to bring encouragement and hope with music and God's Word. Justin has a national radio show and is a part of a radio ministry team that has been on the air for sixteen years entitled, "Life Perspectives". He has performed in events with recording artists John Tesh, Twila Paris, Natalie Grant, Selah, Bob Carlisle, and Nichole C. Mullin to name just a few. He has performed in special events and headlined for authors and speakers Ruth Graham, Stormie Omartian, Tim LaHaye and Jerry B. Jenkins, Dave and Jan Dravecky, among others. Justin ministered in music at "Ground Zero" in New York City after the tragedies of 911 to thousands that were grieving. Justin performed and spoke to our US Military Troops at Ramstein Air Force Base in Germany after the war in Iraq. His music has been described as soothing and refreshing. Justin's teaching is relational and practical as well as compassionate. Some have called Justin "The David of the 21st Century". Justin began writing music at the age of six and today has produced eight CDs and one video that continue to impact lives around the world. His music is used in schools, hospitals, by doctors, dentists and many others all over the world as a music therapy resource. Justin loves God and loves family. He and wife Charla have been married 12 years and plan to have a family through adoption in the near future. Justin Charla both come from Families that love God and are devoted to Christian and family values. Whether it is Justin's music, the titles of his songs, or his Bible teaching topics on his radio program, his mission is to inspire, encourage, and teach people how to be still and know God. For people to capture a fresh revelation that God loves them. In Justin's third grade yearbook, he was asked what he wanted to be when he grew up. He said his dream was to be a minister. Justin desires to lead others through the green pastures and beside the still waters as he leads those into the presence of God.

Behind the music of Justin Knight is the powerful speaking and teaching ministry that comes from the word of God and is inspired by an intimate relationship with God through His Son Jesus Christ. Justin is living his dream as a minister and is following his hero Jesus Christ. ENDORSEMENTS "Justin Knight's music is soothing and inspired. I play it almost exclusively in my home office and car. I am grateful that God has raised up Justin to minister through music to those who are broken by the harshness of life. I have given his CDs as gifts to many people. I am honored to endorse the ministry and music of Justin K. Knight." - Ruth Graham, Author and Speaker "We absolutely love the music ministry of Justin Knight! His CD's are playing constantly in our home. His heart and his love for the Lord flows through his music and brings peace and joy to those who listen." - Dave Jan Dravecky, Author and Speaker "Justin Knight has a definite gift in his expression through music to promote rest for the weary soul, peace for the troubled heart, and a time of blessed quietness in a hectic environment. His music causes one to be still and draw close to God. It is a pleasure to recommend the music and ministry of Justin K. Knight." - Dr. Tim LaHaye, Noted Author of Bestselling "Left Behind" series, Minister, and Nationally Recognized Speaker on Bible Prophecy "It has been a privilege to become acquainted with the ministry of Justin Knight at a recent National Convention. In listening to his music for hours, I have discovered how valuable and beneficial his resources are. I am recommending his ministry to as many groups as possible for what he has to offer is unique, worshipful, and therapeutic. We need Justin's type of music and ministry in as many places as possible." - H. Norman Wright, Marriage and Family Therapist, Professor, Talbot Seminary Graduate Department and Author "Every time I listen to your music, I am blessed tremendously! You are a very gifted man of God! Just this morning I listened to Piano Therapy three times as I was writing my new book! Thanks again for your blessing that your music has been in my life. Keep up the wonderfully anointed piano playing! You are amazing." - John Bevere, Author and Speaker "Justin K. Knight performed at our 2001 World Conference in Nashville, Tennessee. His performance during our sessions and in the exhibit hall was breathtaking and inspiring for all that attended our conference. His Christ centered music therapy is a much needed ministry in our world today. It is a privilege to recommend the instrumental music of Justin K. Knight, not only for concerts and conferences, but also for counseling services for any organization. His music ministers to the mind, body, and soul at the same time leading you into the presence of God." - Dr. Tim Clinton, President of American Association of Christian Counselors "Your ability to provide soothing piano music was part of the healing that made up our mission to the many uniformed personnel that served in the recovery of our families and New York Hero's lost from 9/11. I have had many contacts made thanking The Salvation Army for bringing you to that location at "Ground Zero". I should thank you, since it was you who opened the door for such an experience to happen. It is my sincere desire that you consider making a CD recording that would act as hope for those who grieve. Not only for those in New York but for those who suffer and grieve around the country. Your gift to us continues on." - George Polarek, Major, The Salvation Army Divisional Secretary for Social Services and WTC Incident Commander "I highly recommend to you the music of Justin K. Knight. I became acquainted with the pianist and recording artist at our state education conference where he performed. I have found his instrumental music CD recordings to be soothing, heart warming, and life changing. I later discovered that his music is being used as a music therapy resource in public schools to help with learning, testing, memory retention, ADD/ADHD, depression, anxiety, and many other areas we face in public education. He also visits schools free of charge to educate teachers on how music affects us, and encourages children through music assemblies. I believe that Justin's music is a needed resource in every classroom in America. His music creates an atmosphere that improves learning, reduces stress, and impacts lives of children and teachers in a positive way." - Sandy Garrett, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, State of Oklahoma "Justin's music provides a soothing and relaxed atmosphere with adults as well as children. OCCA highly recommends Justin Knight and his music. His music is used during our professional development classes and is recommended to use when dealing with children regarding anxiety, depression, and anger. In our Directors Advanced Training and our Brain Smart Management courses, Justin's music is used to help directors and teachers learn to cope with anxiety, depression, and anger. We have seen first hand the benefit cognitively, emotionally, physically, and psychologically. I believe Justin's music is a needed resource in every childcare center around the nation. The atmosphere his music creates is very enlightening and encouraging." - Beverly J. Wells, President, Oklahoma Child Care Association "In the scriptures, King Saul would call David to play the harp to soothe him when he was troubled. Certainly, you are the David of the twentieth century." - Nick Garland, Senior Pastor, First Baptist Church, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma "Justin has shared his heart and music with our patients. His ability to relate to hurting people combined with his unique musical style has been extremely therapeutic. I continue to use Justin's music with my clients, especially those who struggle with anxiety and depression." - Timothy K. Peterson, Director of Rapha at Laureate Psychiatric Clinic and Hospital, Tulsa, Oklahoma "I have been exposed to the music and the message behind the music of Justin K. Knight. I find his music to be uplifting and inspiring. As someone who speaks to thousands of people each year to deliver a message of hope and encouragement, I know that Justin's message is sorely needed across the country and around the world. I would encourage anyone to get behind this effort and be a part of Justin's mission to make a real difference in the lives of people everywhere." - Jim Stovall, President of Narrative Television Network "Justin Knight's "Piano Therapy," The Feel Good Album of the Year." - Tulsa World Newspaper, Oklahoma "As I listened to the instrumental music of pianist and composer Justin K. Knight, I found his warm tones and soft touch on the piano keys promote therapy not only physiologically, but also psychologically. I recommend his music to patients who have problems sleeping, managing chronic pain, anxiety, stress related elevated blood pressure, and depression." - Candy Ting, D.O., St. John Medical Center, Tulsa, Oklahoma "As a board certified music therapist, I have used Justin Knight's music with my clients. The music of Justin K. Knight has a soothing and healing effect on the listener." - Teresa Burnett, MSW, MT-BC, Family Resource Group of Eastern Oklahoma, Inc.
