These meditative tunes are a mixture of water sounds like ocean waves or rain drops combined with acoustic guitar arpeggios, lush orchestral elements and tribal percussion. 5 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Lounge, CLASSICAL: New Age Details: The songs of FloatOvations were composed to accompany the listener on a journey to the inner self. Its meditative tunes are a mixture of water sounds like ocean waves or rain drops combined with acoustic guitar arpeggios, lush orchestral elements and tribal percussion. Soothing Maori vocals in the title-track The Realm of Levitation add a flavour of Aotearoa the land of the long cloud (New Zealand). Jo Blankenburg is a composer and pianist from Germany now living in New Zealand. Although his compositions cover a wide spectrum of genres, his main emphasis is film music. The interaction between acoustic and visual elements is the inspiring source for Jo. While in film scoring the images and pictures of a movie initiate the flow of ideas for dramaturgic compositions, with FloatOvations Jos intention is to evoke visualizations in the mind of the listener.
