Great melodic jazz with killer solos on piano, sax, and trumpet with an all around great band. 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Bebop Details: Composer/Piano Player/Vocalist Jim Pearce offers 11 new tunes with a wide range of feels. From the simple beauty of the first track Never Open With A Ballad to the swinging Bebop tune Debbie Marie and much more. The horn section is composed of Eric South and Joe Gransden who are both master improvisers and play with an incredible blend as an ensemble. Herman Burney has one of the greatest bass sounds ever and plays deep in the groove. Paul Fallat plays drums with consummate taste throughout. Rafael Pereira adds spice with percussion on two tracks. Jims previous releases have charted at JazzWeek, CMJ Jazz, Earshot Jazz and Roots Music Report. Hes also been the recipient of numerous awards including Outstanding Achievement in Songwriting and First Place Instrumental Category (Great American Song Contest) and Grand Prize in Jazz Category (John Lennon Songwriting Contest). Pearce's group is nearly flawless -- All About Jazz Jim is an extraordinarily talented musician and those skills are matched by his songwriting abilities. It is easy to see why he has earned many songwriting awards during his illustrious career. His stories and their imaginative lyrics create vivid images that one does not soon forget, or want to. And his piano riffs continue to play in your head long after his music stops. Roots Music Report Jazz composer/pianist Jim Pearce has assembled an impressive canon of songs showcasing his own creative composition prowess and dazzling technical gifts. One Way Magazine a powerful reminder that not all great jazz pianist/composers are signed to Verve or Blue Note or work out of New York All About Jazz Jim Pearce reminds me somewhat of Bob Dorough and Dave Frishberg The Jazz Rendezvous
