Gradually the intensity of the droning and chiming of the many bowls and flute grows. The magical inspired rhythms entice you onward, into the continuum of the spiraling energy of life. You are invited to journey out into light-filled realms of the universe on these unique sonic waves and experience harmonic unification with all life. The extraordinary tones on this brilliant collection will take you to into new vibrations of love and peace. Crystal Portal was produced during the Lunar Eclipse on the Harmonic Concordance (November, 8, 2003) when a powerful infusion of love energy was experienced on Earth. The six-pointed planetary configuration that occurred on this date signaled the coming together of heaven and earth, through the human heart, for a new integration of the masculine and feminine energies. It was a turning point for the future destiny of all humanity. RECORDED LIVE, this work is an inspired blend of 39 crystal singing bowls, silver transverse flute, bells, Celtic harp, gong, water drum and other instruments. The haunting melodies are seemingly simple, yet the flavor of this energy infusion has grown in complexity with each successive album from this ensemble. A new musical style, which crosses the boundaries of jazz, world music and new age, it is all of these and more. Made with the intention to assist humanity in all ways, it is perfect for deep listening, relaxation, meditation and healing. Total playing time 56 minutes Elivia Melodey officially established Crystal Vibrations Music in December of 2000 in conjunction with the recording and release of the first compact disk called, Celestial Memories.
