This CD is alluring in the way Radha is with Krishna. Both ephemeral and and powerful, full of surprises with counterbalanced harmonies that are delightful and at times haunting. The musicians are excellent and support the vocals in a lyrical way. 7 MP3 Songs WORLD: Chants, SPIRITUAL: Mantras Show all album songs: Fire of Devotion Songs Details: Sruti Ram Ishwari Sruti Ram has been leading kirtan for 35 years. He is a devotee of Neem Karoli Baba, and taught with Ram Dass for 30 years as a pujari, meditation master and kirtan singer. SrutiRam has toured in India and sung for many teachers and saints in ashrams and temples. His focus has been to open hearts with the names of the Divine. Ishwari has composed and sung original music for 30 years, and 7 years ago began singing kirtan, "My heart has found it's home chanting the Divine Names, and with meeting Sruti Ram I have found the musical partner I had been seeking all my life". Sruti Ram and Ishwari met at a Woodstock kirtan. After Ishwari produced Sruti Ram's second CD "In Divine Love", they began chanting together. This is truly a magical union of voice and devotion made in heaven. Reviews: Your new CD is alluring in the way Radha is with Krishna. Both ephemeral and and powerful, it keeps me on the edge waiting for the next twist in a phrase; totally unexpected. It is full of surprises and the counterbalanced harmonies are delightful and at times even haunting. The musicians are excellent and support the vocals in a lyrical way that keeps me asking for more. The vocals by you and Iswari are reversed; you the feminine and she the masculine and both very mature. -Ganga Ram CEO Vision Arts Vrindaban, India
