About Bhagavad Gita Bhagavad Gita or the Song of God is the timeless epic providing an insight into Hindu philosophy - speaking to all of humankind. Written between the 5th and 2nd centuries, B.C. Bhagavad Gita is central to the epic poem Mahabharata, a collection of narratives authored by Sage Vyasa on the Bharata clan. Icons of Bhagavad Gita Lord Krishna, is the Charioteer of Arjuna, the Pandava warrior, nephew of Kaurava King Dhritarashtra and Sanjaya, his minister and charioteer who describes the epic battlefield at Kurukshetra between the armies of Pandavas and Kauravas. Gita begins with Arjunas confusion, despair and revulsion on the battlefield, fighting the battle against his enemies- his own relatives, friends and revered teachers. Arjuna turns to Krishna for answers relating to fundamental questions of ethics, morality, duty, religion and philosophy. The questions of Arjuna are answered by Lord Krishna and the reader gets a breadth taking insight into Hinduism, Vedanta and life. Bhagavad Gita has profoundly influenced and inspired millions throughout the ages, both spiritually and culturally and continues to do so even today. We hope our DVD helps you in this spiritual journey towards an enlightened and peaceful life. About Meena Mahadevan Mrs. Meena Mahadevan comes from a family of Sanskrit scholars and has
