showcases the bands originality and driving innovation once again presenting music that is refreshing, surprising and above all revolutionary. "Wonderland / One Million Faces" consist respectively of three parts (Overture, Wonderland, Resume and Research, Consequence, One Million Faces). The structure of the pieces reminds of both classical and operatic compositions but this being Project Pitchfork the whole enterprise comes submerged in sound - a delightful mix of somber beauty and irresistible, electronic hardness. The music combines an enchanted dreamlike quality with the stuff of black nighmares - the ultimate balance of tradition and innovation. This release combines a high compositional level, textual depth and a splendid teamwork of captivating sound and atmosphere. An inspirational must for Pitchfork fans old and new alike...
