I am the honored mother of Benjamin (12) Henry (5) and Fiona (2). My teaching of yoga began 9 years ago. Seeing the strength, smiles, happiness and lightheartedness in my own children, I decided to start Gina Marie's Singsong and Yoga so I could watch other children smile, laugh and play. I have completed and become a certified yoga teacher, I trained at the Temple of Kriya Yoga and Spirit Rising Yoga of Chicago. I have brought yoga programs to women, men seniors, children, teen, pre-school, elementary, middle and high school levels. I also, write original music for children and will be releasing my 1st children's CD in December, 2008, called The Blue Alligator. I started my Gina Marie's singsong in my living room with my own children. I would pull out my guitar I won from a fundraiser and strum one cord and sing these songs about what life is like with children and my kids loved them. They would smile, dance and sing. We would have so much fun. My Guitar teacher and friend, Kevin Wright helped teach me how to play guitar to my Lyrics. Kevin Wright created all of the music for this amazing CD. This CD is also to work with social change - whatever it takes to save a child. Part of the proceeds will go to Children's Charities. My vision is to uplift families and children and make them smile, laugh and sing. NOTHING IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN TEACHING CHILDREN OF THE WORLD MUSIC YOGA AND MEDITATION.
