"A true master of his craft... this work has real substance" - JUICE Magazine (Europe's largest Hip-Hop publication). When banging beats meet raw lyrics: fusing the sounds of Golden Age Hip Hop with modern urban productions. 26 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop Details: "Another producer talent shoots out of nowhere: For less than two years the young man behind Anno Domini Beats has been honing his production skills, yet Adrian from Munich unnoticed by the local scene has already made his mark. US underground cats like Immortal Technique, MF Grimm and Sabac Red are all on the 21-year-olds client list, and his 26 track deep debut album is brim full with features from overseas (...) Adrian obviously has a love for epic-sounding sample-based beats, not caring about production trends in 2005, and its obvious that he is a master of his craft. Take for example an imposing, end-of-days orchestral bombshell like 'Back In The Day' or the haunting choirs of 'End Of Time' on any given Jedi Mind Tricks or Non Phixion album Adrians productions would definitely be amongst the better tracks (...) this work has real substance. Especially noteworthy is also the damn-straight killer snare on 'Cold Outside', and with that we really should wrap up the tirade of praise." - JUICE Magazine (Europe's largest Hip-Hop publication) The most diverse producer in the game... AD a.k.a. Anno Domini Beats is a 21 year old Hip Hop producer straight out of Munich, Germany. Clocking up several million song plays online he has been on the radar of several labels but prefers to strike his own path towards underground infamy. Anno Domini productions are all about coming with that next level sound, a mix of original compositions and samples with styles ranging from dirty horrorcore to bumping street anthems, right down to RnB club joints.
