Details: David and Ginger Hildebrand present concerts and educational programs throughout the United States for museums, historical societies and sites, as well as at universities for graduate and undergraduate students. They appear frequently at Colonial Williamsburg and Mount Vernon. Their music is featured on several recent movies and television, such as the PBS series "Liberty!" and C-SPAN's "American Presidents." David & Ginger's recordings feature vocal and instrumental music on period and reproduction 18th-century instruments. Like "George Washington: Music for the First President" and "Music of the Charles Carroll Family," this CD includes pieces from each of these categories: theater music, dance tunes, topical or patriotic songs, whimsical and/or drinking songs, and chamber music.
