Mantras are sound manifestations of the supreme reality. Gleaned from the Vedas, the revealed book of Hinduism, they are shorthand intimations of the divine. These potent mantras protect those who repeat them and confer the blessings of a fruitful life. 11 MP3 Songs WORLD: Asian, WORLD: World Traditions Details: There is no peace without the grace of God, and there is no grace of God without prayer. Undoubtedly, prayer requires a living faith in God. Prayer should be an integral part of the healing process. The Surya Sataka is a centad of stanzas glorifying Sun God and invoking His blessings. It was composed in Sanskrit by Mayura Kavi, the court poet of Harsha Vardhana in the 7th Century A.D. The chanting or hearing of these verses, create potent vibrations which would fetch remedy for the diseases of any kind by the Sun Gods grace transmitted through his rays. Experienced ancestors and saints have recommended this hymn as one curing leprosy, eye diseases etc. The poet Mayura himself was relieved from his ailment. More than 15 commentaries of this hymn reveal its merit and efficacy. This hymn was very popular in Sri Lanka too. This hymn is judiciously couched in Sragdhara (Garlanding) metre and highly esteemed by the Sanskrit rhetoricians. It praises Surya as the supreme in the universe. It describes his rays, disc, chariot etc. Arogyam Bhaskarat Icchet is the adage which means that good health is sought from the Sun. This Mantra comprises of Surya Gayatri, Rashmivarnanam, Asva Vamanam, Arunavamanam, Suryaratha Vamanam, Mandala Vamanam, Suryanarayana Stuti, Phala Stuti, Akshi Upanishad to cure eye diseases and Surya Mangalam.
