SKIM is a child of hip hop touched by the blues, reggae moods, the soul of Korean folk 21 MP3 Songs
HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: SKIM is one of the most unique voices to emerge from the underground Hip Hop scene within the last decade. She convinces your ears to listen, your body to dance, and your heart to open. She captivates her audience with her raw honesty, despite their frequent judgements of her initially. SKIM is a bridge between man and woman, native and immigrant, rich and poor, love and war. Her music resonates in your spine and reverberates in your bones, striking a chord deep in the heart of anyone willing to listen. Under the guidance of Leila Steinberg, 2Pac's former manager, and grass roots organizers everywhere from New York City to Los Angeles to Naju, Korea, SKIM continues to cultivate her art with the purpose of building lasting relationships between people and cultures through our hearts. One of the most important issues we all must face today is this country's prison/slavery system. Our youth are being cut down without being given a chance to grow. It is up to all of us, young and old, to see the cycles of violence and criminalization we suffer from, then create new cycles of long-term survival for our communities. Connection is her life's intention. Her language is music, as she sings, My God is the mind of every life combined Her flow and melodies have commanded attention like Lauryn Hill, and enticed ears like Meshell Ndegeocello. She has been blessed by overwhelming support in LA, and has already reached the hearts of many in the bay area, Chicago, NYC, Seattle, VA, Sheffield London, England, and is eagerly finding more opportunities to share her music and dreams. Finally, SKIM's anticipated debut album is now available! Currently, SKIM is based in Los Angeles and is also working with non-profit organizations A.I.M. (Assemblies in Motion, led by Leila Steinberg), and the Tribe of the Diasporas. Both are based in Los Angeles, and are establishing their presence worldwide.
