A live healing concert of 900-year-old chants by Hildegard of Bingen, sung by sound shaman Norma Gentile. Accompanied by Tibetan Singing Bowls and a choir of women, this CD includes spoken blessings and Hildegards own poetry with stories of her life told by storyteller Anne Rutherford. The songs invoke the Sacred Masculine and Sacred Feminine, using the music as a carrier wave for healing energies. An ideal vehicle to magnify meditation and creative acts. This CD offers deeply melodic chants written by a woman who 900 years ago discovered the miracle of sound to soothe and heal that rewards listeners today, especially women ages 25 to 85. The CDs music will bring you peace in a busy world and awaken your souls delight. Listeners familiar with the popular male chant, will treasure this feminine version. Ideal to ease rush hour stress or other tensions or to accompany yoga or walking Some songs include suggested meditations. Full color 8 panel eco-pack design, no plastic jewel case to break in shipping. Complete texts and notes. SOUND SHAMAN NORMA GENTILE stands on the precipice between the worlds of professional music making and energy healing. Trained in both worlds, she holds a masters degree in Vocal Performance from the University of Michigan, has recorded four solo CDs of Hildegards chant, and is a published author and channel for the Hathors and Archangel Michael. Norma has appeared on CBS TV, demonstrating live the properties of Gregorian style chant to relax the physical body, and has been profiled by NPRs All Things Considered and the Toronto Star. Her music is used by Carolyn Myss, Drunvalo Melchizedek, and the female yogini Gurmukh. Her singing has a supernatural presence, concentration, and modal sensitivity. according to Mark Longaker (music critic, Washington Post). Her sound healing experience is included in Brooke Medicine Eagles book The Last Ghost Dance. Normas gift, to be deeply intuitive as a highly trained musician, allows her to step beyond even the extraordinary, into the truly new realms to which music leads us all. Norma has been invited to teach at the American Conservatory Theater, Wisdom University, and has coached cast members of Broadway shows such as Vagina Monologues and The Lion King, while coaching singers from musical groups as diverse as Sweet Honey in the Rock and Hesperion XXI. Her recordings include Meditation Chants (Ave Maria Press), Unfurling Loves Creation (Lyrichord Discs), and Healing Chants. Norma serves on the International Editorial Board of OCHRE, Journal of Women's Spirituality, published by the California Institute of Integral Studies, a project of the Women's Spirituality Program. Her website offers complementary mp3 downloads of live healing chants and many articles. healingchants.com Norma Gentile can be found at: normagentile.com Storyteller Anne Rutherford can be found at: annerutherford.com
