With a combination of fantasy and reality, these insect-friendly songs are catchy, witty and educational and are loved by both young children and adults alike. 16 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Storytelling Details: An environmentally and insect friendly album of 16 original songs about insects for children. With a combination of humour, fantasy and reality, the Disney-like "Insect Songs" help teach children (and their parents) about the habits of our little insect friends while teaching us how to respect their little insect lives while living in harmony with them. The "Insect Songs" has a wonderful cast of characters that will delight children for years to come. Find out what secret Ladyworm couldn't keep, why it's good to have such Long Legs and what trouble the moseying Gypsy Moth get's into. Become acquainted with the wicked Sandra The Spider and why you'll never look at a Cockroach in quite the same way ever again! Watch with glee as children, Hop! Hop! Hop! with the Green Grasshopper; march in time with the Marching Ants; strut their stuff with the Battling Beetles, do the Itchy Itchy Dance with the Itchy Flee and fly around gracefully with the Beautiful Butterfly. Then close your eyes and listen in wonder as the insects re-unite in the Disney-like finale Insect Carnival. "Very clever and very cute!"....."Stirs my niece and nephew's little feet and hands into ecstasy"....."It's played every single night in Alex's bedroom"..... are just a few of the superlatives accorded the "Insect Songs". ABSOLUTELY NO INSECTS WERE HARMED IN THE MAKING OF THIS ALBUM.....
