The Northwest's metal madmen debut release and follow up have been called "80's metal classics " appearing on Mike Varney and Shrapnel Records' compilation albums and launched the band into the same realm as Metal Church, Metallica, Slayer who they toured with from 1983-1986 a rabid live show made an impression on many West Coast minds. The tonight show was a remarkable piece of work featuring guitarist Jeff Mark and on drums Jaime St James of Black n Blue and now the singer in Warrant. The disc features Deen Castronovo in his first release, as a 17 year old wunderkind discovered by Matt McCourt in a local Portland downtown club where Deen's vast array of percussion took up the entire stage and his bandmates were forced out onto the dancefloor every gig! timpani, gongs, octobans, and 26 cymbals were SOME of the gear and I thought man, this guy is great! "says Matt" I gotta jam with this guy and the next thing we know we are the bass drums for Malice who later were signed to Atlantic and featured the craziest lead singer James Neal then after hearing the Wild Dogs tapes we'd been doing asked us if he could join us instead of Malice, after a bit of prodding and persuading Jeff and Danny gave it a go and Deen destroyed Jaime St James drumkit ruined all the heads broke the pedal and was doing amazing things with only one foot and a few toms! being a huge fan of Billy Cobham I just hit the motherlode in terms of someone keeping up with the drums in my head! later on Dr Mastermind Deen replicated some challenging riffs I sounded out with my mouth laughs Matt" the songs on this disc are what we travelled with and our live show was from great live music lending itself to lots of show stopping star turns not only did Deen play like a maniac he threw his sticks up in the air 20 feet, twitrled em used one hand all the tricks and man it was mesmerising a front man on drums! which was a good bit we had going that other bands lackedm but i tellya those damn gong stands i rode thousands of miles to gigs on with them stuck in my back sure loked cool -"THE ONE TIME " WE COULD USE EM..... ! see what the band is like live on the live at strry night DVD here at cd baby
