His second album, Future Presents: The 6th Day Phantom

Menace, has been played on Flint's local radio station 94.3 as well as Detroit's internet radio station badgals-radio.com! Born April 3, 1979 in Flint, Michigan, Ed attended Flint public schools where he was an industrious student and gifted athlete, most notably in football. Ed graduated from Northern High School and went on to play semi-professional football in the metro Detroit area. Always very creative with words, Ed never tried to develop those skills due to athletic pursuits. However, with dreams of the NFL behind him, Ed he picked up a pen and began a new Future. In his very first Slam competition he placed second and missed a tie for first by a mere half point. Noted for his unparalleled depth, adeptness and agility in imparting knowledge, commentary and humor, he moves and inspires audiences with his unique delivery, vocal projection, prolific writing skills and social consciousness, speaking with the conviction of a general, the intensity of a middle linebacker and the wisdom of a sage. Continuously developing his craft and the genre by pushing the boundaries artistically and aesthetically, Ed is laying his own path stage after stage. He is a well-traveled artist, having performed in major cities such as Detroit, Miami, Washington, D.C., New Orleans, Nashville, Columbus, Cleveland, Dayton Ohio, Houston Texas; as well as in highly coveted venues including The Mecca Night Club in Milwaukee, Zanzibar, Java Head and Urban Energy (Washington, D.C.), Church Hills (Miami), Redd Apple Gallery, Half Past Three and Chameleon Caf (Detroit), The Green Mill (Chicago), Kijijis (Nashville) and Untamed Tongues in Las Vegas Nevada. Ed attended the University of Michigan Flint where he received his B.A. in Mass Communications Media Studies. He is active in the Flint/Genesee County community where he devotes his time, energy and talent as a member of Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Inc. as well as birthing the biggest stage for Flint talent with his FLINT UN-PLUGGED showcase which was co founded with fellow Flint Town artist Amber Lakes.
