'80s inspired synthpop - mixed male and female vocals throughout - melodic songs, happy, upbeat pop songs 14 MP3 Songs POP: 80's Pop, POP: New Wave Details: Chinese theatre began as a band with three original members...Their first and only song was a cover of In Harmony by Boytronic. (Produced for the Boytronic Tribute "This The End Of Love"). The band's name was taken from one of their favorite bands electric theatre. They used Chinese instead of electric because in the 80s it was cool to flirt with chinese, japanse words in a romantic way. In the year 2002, Chinese Theatre became a solo project of Krister Pettersson. He started remixing artists from around the globe. (colony 5, Freezepop, Royal Visionaries, Sero Overdose and more...) In 2005, Chinese Theatre released an entire remix on synthphony records.. Following, CT decided to make an album with original songs The album "Voices and machines" is presented here on Section 44. It features various guest vocalists throughout. Welcome to Chinese Theatre
