National tour this fall... - "Aaron has some of the best phrasing of anyone I know singing songs. There are lines in every song that really floor me. Aaron is big talent." -- Rebecca Martin,MAXJAZZ Recording Artist -Radio: WNCW, WNYU, WJFF,and WICB among others, Bovine Radio. - His debut record "Songs For Madame X" in its third printing since Feb 20th. Songs from the album have been recorded by other Williamsburg area songwriters. -Mr. Berg performed with Peter Rowan [leadsinger Bill Monroe 1963-1967] at the Windgap Folk Festival 2004, and also, Chris Hillman [The Byrds], Herb Pedersen [Gordon Lightfoot, James Taylor], and Fayssoux Starling [Emmylou Harris]. -Born in Greenville, South Carolina in 1984, Berg has a voice that will call sirens from their ocean beds and lure them onto land. His poetry is infused with both a rebellious seduction and a strident social awareness far beyond his years. The songs' sometimes dark country flare is bolstered by gritty upright and electric basses, grainy late-night guitars, and a boyish southern charm.
