As Man 2 Man, Paul Miki went on to composed, produced perform songs that would come to define an era in 80s Euro dance/pop and their club sensation "Male Stripper" became a 1 pop hit throughout Europe, Austalia, South America Mexico. In 1983 The Fast changed their name to Man 2 Man, started to record self produced 12inch dance singles and would have popular chart topping club hits by 1985. The song Male Stripper was released as a b-side in 1986 and shot to number 1 on the dance charts world wide and in March of 1987 went on to become a break out, cross over number 1 pop hit in Europe and landed them on the most important music TV show in England, "Top Of The Pops". Man 2 Man singles "Male Stripper", "I Need A Man", "Energy Is Eurobeat", "Who Knows What Evil?" "These Boots Are Made For Walkin" all hit the pop charts in the UK and "At The Gym" became a hit in France with co-production help from Village People producer Jaques Morali. Man 2 Man toured the World for the remainder of the 80s and retired in 1990 and haven't released new recordings or performed live since.
